COOK-OFF RULES

Entries will be accepted first come, first serve. Teams may have 1-6 members. Each team must prepare 4 gallons of chili and is encouraged to make more. Meat must be prepared in advance and off-site; all other cooking must be done on-site. Teams may not serve alcoholic beverages to the public. Team names can be humorous but must be in good taste. Team captains must have, at all times, a 3"x5" notecard listing ingredients. Each team must have 2 jugs of water at all times. Electricity will not be provided. Teams will supply and display a banner or sign identifying their booth and will decorate booth with a pirate theme. Teams will also provide the following: tables for food prep and serving, chairs, cooking utensils, portable stove or other cooking source, wash pans, type K fire extinguisher, decorations. Tents will not be provided. Teams are encouraged to bring a 10x10' tent in case of inclement weather. Neither tents nor chairs will be provided.

Booths must be set up on Saturday, Oct. 7 between 10:00-noon. (Space provided is a firm 10x10', and no staked tents will be allowed.) At 1:00 p.m., team captains will check in at sign-in booth, attend the captains' meeting, and receive an official judging cup. (The cup cannot be decorated or altered in any manner.) Captains will ensure that team members are on time and familiar with the rules. Cooking may begin at noon. Public sampling will begin at 4:00. (The public may use only the cup purchased from the Cook-Off Committee; contestants will be disqualified if cups are provided to the public.) A chili sample must be turned in for judging between 4:30-5:00 p.m. Winners will be announced that evening. Teams may not dismantle their booths before 8:00; all booths must be off the premises by midnight.

Prizes will be awarded for: Judges' Choice, People's Choice, Most Original Chili, and Best Decorated Booth.
